C. E. CONVENTION

At Bethany Closed Yesterday, and Was Very Successful.

THE OFFICERS WERE ELECTED

And Moundsville Chosen as the Place of Meeting for 1901—Rev. R. B. Bigger, of Wheeling, is the New President of the Wheeling District Organization—The People of Bethany Thanked For Their Hospitality.

The Wheeling district Christian Endeavorers closed their annual convention at Bethany last night, after a gathering of two days that was interesting and profitable. The district embraces about thirty societies of this young people's organization in Hancock, Brooke, Ohio, Marshall and West Virginia counties, and the attendance of delegates and visitors was large at all the sessions. The convention was held in the Disciples' church, at Bethany.

The convention opened Thursday evening, and before adjournment, J. M. Kenney, of Bethany college, extended an invitation to the delegates to attend the college chapel next morning for the regular services before beginning the school recitations. The first proceeding yesterday morning was the sunrise prayer meeting at 6 a. m., which was well attended, and at 8 a. m., a large crowd attended chapel.

The convention programme opened at 9 a. m., at the Disciples' church, with President J. B. Smith, of Moundsville, in the chair, and he conducted the preliminary devotional exercises. Rev. R. B. Bigger, of the Third Presbyterian church, who delivered the annual sermon, Thursday night, led in prayer, and the hymn, "Speed Away," was sung.

"The Personal Worker," was a topic that was next discussed by Rev. Messrs. Smith, Bigger, Barnes, Oliphant and others.

Rev. W. A. Hartman, of the Second English Lutheran church, Wheeling, delivered an address on "Christian Endeavor and Missions."

Rev. I. A. Barnes, of Morgantown, president of the state union of the society, spoke on the "State Convention," and he urged all present to attend the Morgantown meeting.

The consecration hour was led by Rev. R. F. Getty, of Cameron, and while this was in progress, a party of twenty-five members of the society from the First Christian church, Wheeling, filed into the hall. They rode out to Bethany in a large transfer wagon.

William Fields, a student at Bethany college, sang a solo, "The Sinking Ship," very acceptably, and Rev. Mr. Oliphant led the discussion on the expansion of the Christian Endeavor movement in Wheeling district.

"The Excuse for not Being a Christian," was the theme of a paper read by L. N. Fickelsen, of Wellsburg. Mr. Fickelsen said he was unable to find any excuse, and he supposed this paper had been assigned to him because "a poor excuse was better than none."

In the afternoon, Rev. T. J. White, of Bethany college, who is to be the new pastor of the Second Christian church, Wheeling, spoke on "The Wide Awake Social Committee," and "The Wide-Awake Prayer Meeting," was handled by Guy Pryor, of Wheeling.

A junior hour was next conducted by Mrs. James Moise, of Wheeling. Songs were sung by Marie Jones and Laura Gibson, two little Bethany girls, and Master Frank Jones, of Wheeling, scored a great hit with his recitation, "When the Preacher Visits Us."

Recitations were also delivered creditably by Clinton Pryor, of Wheeling, Idaho Updegraff, Harry Matthews, Ida Taylor, Ruth Gibson—the latter four years old—and Laura Gibson and Mary Adams, of Bethany. The reports showed the junior movement to be growing. The Juniors in the Wellsburg Presbyterian church numbered ninety-one girls and sixty-three boys, making the largest junior branch in the state.

During the afternoon session, George B. Evans, a Bethany student, read a paper on the "Past of the Christian Endeavor," in which he argued that Peter and Paul were Christian Endeavorers, and so nobly was the paper written that Mr. Evans was requested to have it published.

"The Mission of the Christian Endeavor," was a subject forcefully discussed by Rev. Mr. Oliphant.

At the evening session, the feature was the address of Rev. C. B. Austin, D. D., of the Vance Memorial church, who dwelt on the subject, "The Christian Endeavor in the Twentieth Century." The address was eloquent and timely. Rev. Mr. Barnes also made an effective and appropriate address.

The next proceeding was the election of officers and the selection of the next place of meeting. Officers were elected as follows:

President—Rev. R. B. Bigger, Wheeling.

Vice president—Rev. W. A. Hartman, Wheeling.

Secretary—Charles Cowgill, Bethany.

Treasurer—Miss Viola Martin, Collier's Station.

Moundsville was selected as the meeting place for May 2 and 3, 1901.

Mrs. James Moise was elected the superintendent of the Junior Endeavor work.

Resolutions were adopted, thanking the good people of Bethany for their hospitality, and protesting against desecration of the Lord's day. The delegates took a stand against Sunday bazaar and pledged themselves to refrain from attending parks were beer was sold.

The convention committees were as follows:

On resolutions—C. M. Oliphant and Mrs. James Moise, Wheeling; Mr. Manning, Cameron.

Time and place of convention—W. H. Fields, Miss Iva Courtwright, Charles Cowgill.

On nominations—Miss Ola Scott, Bethany; Miss Carrie Turner, Moundsville; L. N. Fickelsen, Wellsburg.

Mozart Park To-morrow. After such an auspicious opening as last Sunday's, the Mozart park season of 1900 certainly appears very flattering to the management. Every Sunday of the season a good band will provide music for the patrons of Mozart and when the evenings become warmer the concerts will be given in both the afternoon and evening. This will attract many people to the popular hill top resort. No doubt there will be a good representation of bowlers at the park to-morrow, as the summer tournament opens Monday night and the knights of the allegys are anxious to see what kind of a course they have to travel. Mayor's band will furnish the music to-morrow and have arranged a really excellent programme, which is sure to be rendered artistically.

POLITICAL POINTERS.

Most of the Ohio county delegation to the Clarkburg congressional delegation and Fairmont state delegate, convention, next Monday and Tuesday respectively, will leave for Clarkburg to-morrow at midnight. Colonel Horkheimer's friends will be at the Harrison county metropolis in force to root for "the man who looks like Dewey."

At the district conventions in this county on Thursday, May 17, to select delegates to the congressional convention, the three county districts will choose six delegates each, and the seven city districts seven delegates each. The vote of each district in the convention will be based on its vote for Atkinson in 1896, but as the district lines have been changed since '96, the county committee, says Chairman Hornish, will have to do a little figuring to ascertain just how many votes each district will be entitled to. Based on the '96 vote the voting strength of each district would be as follows: Washington, 7; Madison, 12; Clay, 7; Union, 6; Centre, 4; Webster, 10; Ritchie, 11; Richland, 2; Liberty, 2; Triadelphia, 6; total, 67.

There are now three aspirants for the Republican nomination for senator in the first senatorial district. In addition to Messrs. C. B. Scott, of Bethany, and S. George, of Wellsburg, Brooke county now has another candidate in the person of Mr. James Archer, a well known farmer, living opposite Steuben county, by rotation with Hancock, the nomination is conceded to Brooke county this year.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Going and Coming of Wheeling People and Visitors.

Underwood Nazro, of Sisterville, is in the city.

W. A. Smith, of New Matamoras, is stopping at the Stamm.

Dr. J. D. Schmied, of New Martinsville, was a visitor in the city yesterday.

C. A. Colpitts and C. J. Howard were Barnesville people at the Grand Central yesterday.

J. D. Finley and Kate Elliott, of Smithfield, were registers at the McLeure yesterday.

T. J. Martin, principal of Ritchie school, F. H. Crago, principal of Ritchie school, and S. George, of Wellsburg, of Manington, were guests at the Windsor yesterday.

John N. Crago, postmaster of Carmichael, Pa., is visiting his brother, F. H. Crago, principal of Ritchie school. He will remain over Sunday. Mr. Crago is one of the original Republicans, having voted for John Fremont in 1896, and has never had occasion to vote any other ticket since that time. He is an enthusiastic supporter of McKinley and his administration.

THE B. & O. SCHEDULE

Discussed at a Meeting of Freight and Passenger Officials.

Yesterday morning and afternoon, at the McLeure parlors, the leading freight and passenger traffic officials of the Baltimore & Ohio system were in session, considering the changes desired for the spring and summer schedule, which is formulated now and goes into effect in the near future. The proceedings were not made public.

Among the officials who arrived yesterday to attend the meeting were the following: D. F. Marony, Baltimore, superintendent of transportation; T. Fitzgerald, general superintendent, Baltimore; William Gibson, general superintendent, Pittsburgh; Thomas English, superintendent, Newark; O. Fred Husted, superintendent, Grafton; F. G. Rawn, general superintendent, Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern, Cincinnati; O. P. McCarty, of Cincinnati, general passenger agent, Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern; J. B. Frow, schedule agent, Baltimore.

BRIEF MENTIONINGS.

Events in and About the City Given in a Nutshell.

Col. Robert White will give an address to young men at the Y. M. C. A. building Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Max Fischer, doing business as a tobacconist and men's furnisher at Sistersville, was discovered to be missing yesterday, and a host of creditors mourn his absence. It is presumed that he has gone to Chicago. Waterhouse Bros. of this city, are short thereby to the extent of $400.

It is reported that John J. Sheehey has disposed of his interest in his cafe, on Twelfth street, to Thomas G. Halpin. Mr. Sheehey retires from the business on account of ill health, and he will rest in the hope of recuperating it. Mr. Sheehey said last night that the deal had not yet been consummated. The consideration is between $3,000 and $10,000.

A jury in Squire Fitzpatrick's court yesterday returned a verdict of not guilty in the case of Pearl Wiley, charged with unlawful cohabitation with William Blinco. The latter has not been apprehended yet. Another William Blinco, a cousin of the accused, was arrested yesterday by Officer Turner, but released when it was learned that he was not the erring William.

EMPLOYERS LOOK OUT.

A Change in Food Doubled the Wages.

The manager of a certain large publication, who deprecates the use of his name in public, has experienced a curious change in his general character by reason of a change in the cells of his brain, brought about by a change in food and his experience is interesting, as given in his own words:

"Up to a short time ago, I was always known, both to myself and friends, as a very mild sort of individual, obeying literally the Scripture injunction to 'turn the other cheek,' and let people run over me generally, with a spirit of thankfulness that I was permitted to be alive."

"Along last fall I changed my diet, leaving off coffee entirely and taking up Postum Food Coffee and Grape-Nuts breakfast food. I had learned that these articles both contained the fine particles of phosphate of potash and albumen that nature uses to build the gray matter in the brain, and nerve centers, so I determined to see what effect they would have on me."

"It was not long before I discovered that I had changed in a most remarkable manner. My old mother wrote me that there was a great deal more 'punch' in my letters than she ever saw before. I began to 'give the devil his due.' I began to feel that I was a criminal libel suit against a party who supposed I would stand anything. I sent a dish back that is not cooked right about every third week. On the 21st of December last I demanded double wages for the coming year and found I had lachance enough to lay down if I did not get it—and I got it. I get clean sheets twice a week now. They used to take the upper sheet and put it under once a week."

"I am able to do five times the brain work that I ever have before. In fact, I can get along about anything I want nowadays, and to top it all, am perfectly well. A new world has been opened to me and I know exactly where the change has come from. It has come because I have been using a food and drink that have changed my whole brain and body. You can use this letter, but don't use my name, for obvious reasons."

Grape-Nuts breakfast food and Postum Food Coffee are kept by all first-class grocers and are used by nearly all first-class people.
